THURSDAY 23 MARCH PARLIAMENT HOUSE CANBERRA

Special Event Announcement: We are pleased to invite you to attend Endometriosis Australia's Inaugural Breakfast at Parliament House on Thursday, 23 March 2023. This special event will take place during Endometriosis Awareness Month and will be attended by Members of Parliament, Senators, health officials, clinicians, and most importantly, endometriosis patients.

The event emcee is the talented and Canberra-raised, now Brisbane-based radio announcer Ellie Angel-Mobbs, and will feature a keynote speech from the effervescent Emma Watkins, former yellow Wiggle, and star of children's entertainment character Emma Memma.

Gather your friends, family, and work colleagues and book your tickets to attend this special event today.

CANBERRA TICKETS

If you enjoy being outdoors, then don't miss out on our Trek for Endo 2023. This May join us as we visit the Instagram worthy Bay of Fires and walk some breathtaking trails.

Get away from the hustle and bustle of city life and join a group of like-minded people all trekking for the same cause! With every step you take, you'll raise vital funds to increase awareness of endometriosis, improve education for patients, families and health professionals and invest in groundbreaking research for treatment and a cure.

We keep our groups small but fun and so many of our past trekkers have become friends for life. If you've been looking for an excuse to finally book that trip to Tassie then this is it - you won't be sorry! So dust off your walking shoes and click below to register today.

Ep.39
Angie Kent
“Endo, anxiety and eating disorders”

LIVING WITH ENDO
The A to Z of Endometriosis

With host Ellie Angel-Mobbs

ENDOMETRIOSIS AUSTRALIA

The graphic features two circular portraits: one of a blonde woman (Angie Kent) and one of a woman in a red top (Ellie Angel-Mobbs). The background includes a yellow dotted pattern and the Endometriosis Australia logo.

 PODCAST RECAP - in case you missed it! Angie Kent talks endo, anxiety and eating disorders

After undergoing surgery for her Endo, Angie recounts the story of how she was diagnosed, what has helped her symptom relief and how she is managing multiple diagnoses in one body including Adenomyosis, PCOS, and Interstitial Cystitis. In this heart-opening interview with our very own Ellie Angel-Mobbs, Angie reflects on her struggles as a young person with eating disorders and anxiety and how ensuring she had a team of medical and allied health professionals around her using trial and error has helped to relieve symptoms and made her feel more in control.
